SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference sessions. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage both to the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information.—EDITOR.

NOTES

Arizona Mission has been consolidated with Southern California Conference, and will be found as the first District therein.

Arkansas Conference, formerly a Spring Conference, was discontinued as a separate organization by the General Conference of 1920 and its territory included in the Saint Louis Conference, where it now appears as the first District.

Italy Conference, which is printed in the Spring Minutes, is a Fall Conference and appears in this volume as such, and will be so classified hereafter. France Mission Conference, however, which appears here as well as in the Spring, is a Spring Conference, and will be so classified in the future.

Baltic and Hungary Missions, authorized by the last General Conference, will belong properly to the Fall list, but owing to the unsettled condition of affairs in the territory comprised no meetings have as yet been held.

DEATH ROLL

DEATH ROLL

The Editor of the GENERAL MINUTES is trying to perfect the Death Roll and give a very small item of information concerning each brother who has finished his work here and gone to his reward.

The response of Conference Secretaries is much better than formerly, and it is hoped that erelong every blank following the name will be filled.

HENRY ANSON BUTTZ, D.D., LL.D.

This man of God was born in Middle Smithfield, Pa., April 18, 1835, and died in Madison, N. J., October 6, 1920. Largely attended funeral services were held in the Chapel of Drew Theological Seminary, and interment was in the cemetery at Madison.

Dr. Buttz was educated at Princeton University, graduating in the class of 1858, when he received his A. B. degree, and in 1861 his A. M. In 1875 they granted him the degree of D. D. Wesleyan University honored him with an A. M. in 1866 and a D. D. in 1903; while in 1885 Dickinson College made him an LL. D.

April 11, 1860, he married Miss Emily Hoagland. Two daughters are living, one the wife of Professor Sitterly of Drew, and the other the widow of Rev. Dr. Walling Clark, who spent many years in mission work in Italy.

The pastorates of Dr. Buttz were from 1858 to 1868 and were at Millstone, Irvington, Woodbridge, Mariners Harbor, Paterson, and Morristown. In this latter year he began the teaching of Greek and Hebrew in the Seminary at Drew, and later was made Professor of New Testament Greek, which place he held from 1870 to 1913; President from 1880 to 1912, and President Emeritus from 1912 to his death. Early in his ministerial life he took high rank in the Newark Conference, of which he was a charter member. His affable and genial manner attracted many to him, and his scholarship and ability won him place with all classes.

Beginning with 1884 he was a member of every General Conference up to and including 1912. He declined to be a candidate in 1916. He was very frequently spoken of for the Episcopacy, but always refused to make any move or say any word that would further his cause. He felt that he was in his proper place at the head of an institution that was training young men for the great work of the Christian ministry, and there he stayed until 1912, when he resigned the presidency of the school, but continued in his place as a professor.

He was a man of most gentle spirit; not meaning that he could easily be run over, for he had firm convictions and by them was ready to stand or fall.

He had a broad view of the work of the Kingdom of God. It was for all mankind; for men of every nationality on the earth; hence he was greatly devoted not only to the work of Christian education, but also of Christian missions; for many years he was one of the Managers of the Board of Foreign Missions.

He was a great teacher, and daily as the young men gathered about him, he opened to them the Scriptures with such clearness that their minds were stimulated to deeper research and their souls kindled with a holy fire.

He lives in the lives of hundreds of young men all over the world, not simply by his teaching, but by what he was; his holy character and his beautiful spirit that was a benediction to all who came into his presence.

He rests from his labors, but his works do follow him.

EDWIN R. GRAHAM, LL.D.

Publishing Agent of the Methodist Book Concern, 1904-1921.

Edwin R. Graham was a child of the Methodist parsonage, his father having been a member of the North Ohio Conference for many years. In this parsonage home he got his first training. He became a student at Baldwin University at Berea, Ohio, and graduated in 1874. Soon after this he entered the employ of the Western Methodist Book Concern at Cincinnati, and later was in the employ of Houghton, Mifflin & Co. of Boston, Mass. In these two places he became versed in the book business, and when in 1904 he was mentioned as a candidate for Publishing Agent, at the General Conference at Los Angeles, Cal., his previous training gave him a great advantage and he was elected, and then reelected in 1908, 1912, 1916, and 1920. He was placed in charge of the Chicago House when first elected and remained there till 1916; then was sent to the New York House to follow Dr. George P. Mains, who had declined a reelection.

In 1888 he married Miss Mary Dolliver, a daughter of the parsonage, her father, the Rev. J. J. Dolliver, having been one of the leaders in Iowa Methodism. Their two sons, Dolliver W. and Robert Hawthorne, have grown to manhood; the elder one in business in New York and the younger on his father's farm at Richwood, Ohio, at which place Dr. Graham died on February 19, 1921.

While the death of Dr. Graham was not unexpected to those who had been closely associated with him for some years past, still it was to them a distinct shock as it must have been to the entire church which had known him so long. He will not only be missed in official Methodism and in the General Conference of which he was a member in 1904, 1916 and 1920, but also by the rank and file of the people who were under his direct care.

The writer can testify to the good feeling on the part of the employees of the Concern at New York. He was easy of approach; did not hold off at arm's length, but cordially received them and let them open their hearts to him. He had a kind word to say here and there to those who were doing the work that was making the great House, of which he was one of the chief officers, a power throughout the Christian world.

During the ten years in which the writer of this has been Editor of the General Minutes he has gathered items and written Memoirs for thirty-one men for these pages. For the most part they have been ministers. This is because the class of men who fill most of the official positions of the church come from that body. There have been only two laymen of whom he has written; one was Mr. James W. Pearsall, who was a member of the local Book Committee of 'New York for fifteen years, and now Dr. Graham, who was elected Publishing Agent at the same General Conference at which Mr. Pearsall was made a member of the Local Committee. He will be missed by all his friends, but with our belief in immortality, it is not our place to mourn. The "workman dies, but God carries on his work."
